

MECHANIZED OPERATION . . . C. C. Young loads fertilizer on a huge dump truck which will take it to nearby farms and orchards for spreading. This equipment is owned by cooperating poultry and rabbit ranchers of the area. Such measures helped a local ranch win a coveted award last week.

HANDLING ELIMINATED . . . C. C. Young, general manager of the Poultry and Rabbit Fertilizer Assn., checks the spreader built onto the back of the association's dump truck which eliminates piling and handling of ranch waste. The spreader puts the fertilizer directly onto soil of farms.

Local Poultry Ranch Receives Award of Merit

An all-out effort in the poultry industry to raise its own standards of cleanliness and sanitation achieved a major milestone last week with the awarding of 29 "Award of Merit" plaques which may be hung in front of the winner's ranch.

One such sign was awarded to K's Poultry and Egg Ranch, 3516 Emerald Ave., the only award made locally. This is the first time such an award has been made.

Winner of the award here was K. L. Christofferson, who competed with hundreds of other poultry ranchers throughout the Southland in the judging which was based on cleanliness of the ranch from the road to the back fence.

Awards were made Wednesday night at the annual County Farm Bureau Poultry Department picnic in Pasadena.

School Work Delayed by Lack of Men

A shortage of tile layers and strikers may delay the opening of Carl Steele school past its scheduled opening date in September, Torrance school officials said this week.

A lack of men to lay tile floors at the school building is delaying work, Dr. J. H. Hull reported. School officials were informed that the Tile Layers Union, Local No. 18, AFL, had assigned 10 men for the job, but that Select Tile, sub-contractor, was using the men on the Beverly Hilton hotel in Beverly Hills.

The George W. Carter Construction Co. is general contractor.

A strike by operating engineers earlier in the summer also delayed work, school officials said.

The northwest Torrance school is expected to house some 827 children at its opening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hulsev and two sons, David and Michael, 17309 Elgar, have recently returned from a three-week vacation during which they visited 10 western states. Highlights were the Bryce, Zion National Parks, Grand Canyon and the state penitentiary at Canon City, Colo.

2 Bicycles Stolen

Their bicycles were stolen while they attended a movie, Kenneth Mosley, of 613 Pine, and Denis Bunker, of 1735 W. 234th St., told Torrance Police Friday. The bikes were parked near the corner of Craven and Gramercy Aves., they said.

Chickenpox Tops List

Chickenpox claimed six victims in the Torrance Health area during the week ending July 23, making it the leader for the first time in as many weeks, according to the weekly County Health Department report.

Twenty-five cases of disease were reported for the week, including whooping cough, four mumps, gonorrhoea, and measles, each three; tuberculosis and syphilis, each two, and pneumonia and polio, each one.

The city of Torrance had one case of chickenpox, measles, mumps, gonorrhoea, and tuberculosis.

CHILD KILLER

Cancer in the U. S. kills more children from ages 3 to 15 years old than any other of the known diseases.

FIRST OF ITS KIND . . . Wendell Jones, left, field secretary of the Los Angeles County Farm Bureau, hangs a new award of merit sign at K's Poultry Ranch, operated by K. L. Christofferson, and David W. Collett, chief sanitarian for the L. A. County Health Department.
